Series Overview: We all want happy, healthy relationships AND we have our moments. For the most part, a lot of us feel like we have no idea what we're doing. Some of us didn't grow up with great examples. Many of us inherited unhelpful instincts. So, what if you could give those around you something better than you got?

//TALK

Ice Breaker - What is your favorite "teen" movie?

Q1 – All the concepts of how an adult should parent a child are the same concepts for how we should parent ourselves. Would you agree?

Q2 – The desperation we feel to have others, including our kids, to like us can prevent us from having effective disciplines in our life. Have you experienced this recently?

Q3 – Showing others your values through your actions is far better than telling them what you value because values are more caught than taught. Share a time you experienced someone who led by example/actions over just their words.

Q4 – Read 1 Corinthians 11:1 – [Read in different translations] What stands out to you in this passage? What comes to mind when you think of other people following your example?

Q5 – Whether you like it or not, the growth you want to see in those around you starts with you because all our relationships get better as we get better...AND BETTER IS POSSIBLE. Do you agree that relationships get better as we get better?

Q6 – What is one practical thing you can do this week to improve the idea of "Values are caught not taught" in your family or circle of influence?

Family Values are caught not taught.

//MEMORIZE

1 Corinthians 11:1 TPT - I want you to pattern your lives after me, just as I pattern mine after Christ.

//PRAY

Take time to pray for the needs in your group. Pray for our church and our church leaders. Pray for the health of our church and our community. Pray for the families in our church to grow stronger. Ask God to help us be a healthy, growing church that connects with people far from God.
